FOUND DEAD IN HIS BED.

DEATH OF SENATOR ZACHARIAH CHANDLER IN CHICAGO.

His Last Speech Made in Chicago, and then Laid Down to His Last Long Rest.

CHICAGO, Nov. 1.—Senator Zachariah Chandler, of Michigan, was found dead in his bed at the Grand Pacific Hotel this morning. He had been speaking in Wisconsin and last night addressed an immense audience at McCormick Hall in this city, and spoke with his usual earnestness. After the meeting when he and Senator Logan and the Hon. Jesse Spaulding were sitting in his room engaged in conversation, Senator Chandler complained of indigestion as he complained of some distressing feeling while en route to the city with these gentlemen. Mr. Spaulding suggested he remain over in the city until Saturday night, but he said business affairs required his attention at home and an order was given to have him called in the morning at 7 o'clock. His friends then bade him good night and left. That is the last time the Senator was seen alive.

This morning when the office boy called him there was no response, as upon repetition silence prevailed, the clerk effected an entrance through the transom and found that the Senator was dead. The body was not quite cold and the physician who was present decided that death occurred about three hours previous to the discovery. The face looked tranquil, showing death was painless. The coroner will hold an inquest. John D. Drake telegraphed President Hayes the sad intelligence about 8 o'clock.

From a partial examination, it is thought he died of sudden congestion of the lungs brought on by a cold contracted at Jonesville. The flags are at half mast upon the Pacific Hotel and other buildings The Tribune building is also draped in mourning. The Union Veteran Club and officers of the County Militia held an informal consultation, to tender their services to the family when they arrive.

No New Cases.

MEMPHIS, Nov. 1.—No new cases reported since Thursday. Last night was the coldest of the season. The thermometer at seven o'clock this morning had fallen to 37°. The Appeal and Avalanche will both resume publication in full size issue to-morrow. The merchants report a rush of business, and the physicians all agree that the cold winds of last night swept away all the lingering germs of fever.

The Pistol.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 1.—A special from Greenville, Miss., reports the killing of Harry Ely and the severe wound of a man named Atkinson, in the shooting affray between some parties at Leata. Yellow fever has ceased at Concordia.

The Spanish steamship "Enrique," from Liverpool October 3d for Havana, brought here a sailor and a passenger, of the bark now due Sally Coden, with lumber from Pensacola.

Pennsylvania Items.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 1.—The directors of the Pennsylvania railroad held a special meeting to-day and resolved to declare a semi-annual dividend of 2½ per cent.

The motion for a new trial of Daniel T. Sullivan, convicted of the murder of Josie Irvin, was denied to-day and he was sentenced to be hanged.

The Rinderpest.

LONDON, Nov. 1.—The Echo this evening published a statement to the effect that fresh outbreaks of the rinderpest in the Western States of America, will prevent the rescinding of the order against the importation of live American cattle.

The strike of the iron ship builders on Tees has been compromised.

"When in Rome," Etc.

ROME, Nov. 1.—After a long trial, Cardinali and his mistress, Raffaella Saraceni, widow of Captain Fadda, have been found guilty. Cardinali was convicted of the murder of Captain Fadda and sentenced to death. The woman was convicted of complicity, before the fact, in the murder, and was sentenced to hard labor for life.

Hanlan Going to Law.

TORONTO, Nov. 1.—At a meeting of Hanlan's friends yesterday it was decided to send a letter to Blakie, signed by Hanlan, stating that Courtney had returned the articles unsigned, and that he (Hanlan) had determined to settle the ownership of the $6000, in a court of law.

Banking Holidays.

LONDON, Nov. 1.—The first secular days of May and November being days on which the Bank of England makes up its balances, those days are observed as holidays in the Bank on Stock Exchange; consequently no business is doing at either of those places to-day.

Miscellaneous Foreign Items.

LONDON, Nov. 1.—The Standard's financial article says: Shares of the Anglo-American Cable Company rose on the rumor of a compromise with the French Cable Company.

BUCHAREST, Nov. 1.—Small pox is prevalent here

The Cental System in Abeyance.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—The Grain Trade resolved almost unanimously this morning to instruct the Grain Committee not to carry into effect the cental system on the 1st of January next relative to grain.

Death of a Savannah Merchant.

SAVANNAH, Ga., Nov. 1.—John R. Wilder, a prominent merchant of this city, was found dead in bed at his residence in Marietta this morning. He left here Thursday in good health, and his death was unexpected.

A Tenant House Vacated.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—Five men, sentenced for passing counterfeit money, escaped from the Ludlow street jail this morning.

Steamship Departure.

NORFOLK, Va., Nov. 1.—The steamship Emiliano sailed for Liverpool today, with five thousand bales of cotton on board.

Sold Short.

LONDON, Nov. 1.—There was considerable excitement on Liverpool cotton exchange yesterday. Brokers who had sold for October delivery were mostly unable to produce staple, and were compelled to submit to a farthing per pound penalty, decide upon by the cotton brokers' association, besides difference in price, which in many cases was a penny per pound.

Tilden's Income Tax.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—The examination of James B. Colgate, of the banking firm of Colgate & Co., in the suit of the government against Samuel J. Tilden for arrears in his income tax, was continued in the United States Courts to-day. Judge Choate, before whom the question was pending, gave his decision that the United States Commissioner could not compel the witness to produce the books of the firm. The witness states that the firm has some transactions with Tilden, but the nature and extent he did not know. He was questioned at some length regarding his Fort Wayne stock transactions with Tilden, but could give no information about them. He presumed, however, that they were entered on the firm's books, but refused to produce the books.

Finding Fault with Blank Warrants.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 1.—Advices from Wheeler county, Texas, say there is a good deal of feeling there, owing to the arrest of several persons by United States marshals on blank warrants filled out to suit certain cases. The arrested parties were released on writs of habeas corpus in the State courts and rearrested by United States marshals. These marshals also swore out warrants for interference with Federal officers, and with a squad of soldiers from Fort Elliott, who have gone to make arrests. Trouble is anticipated, and it is said that the matter has been reported to Attorney General Devens, and that he has instructed the Federal judge of the Dallas district to investigate the matter.

Tinkling Brass and Sounding Cymbals.

LONDON, Nov. 1.—Sir Stafford Northcote, Chancellor of Exchequer, in answering a letter calling his attention to popular distress in southwest of Ireland and suggesting immediate action by the government in providing work for employment of people says that he sympathizes with the people, but can only refer them to the Irish Executive. He adds that direct interposition by the government would be open to great abuse.

LATE NEWS NOTES.

The jury in the Barnes poison case at Sandy Hill, New York, Thursday night rendered a verdict of not guilty.

The trial of James Currie for the murder of B. C. Porter, the actor, in Texas, is set down for Thursday, December 1st. A venire of sixty jurors has been ordered.

At the wedding of the daughter of L. D. Heath, at Spring Lake, Michigan, Wednesday evening, about one hundred guests were poisoned by arsenic put in the baking powder or flavoring of the cake. None were fataly affected, however.

The remains of Lieutenant Weir, recently slain by the Utes, arrived at Rawlins, Wy. T., Thursday. They were escorted to the court house, where a funeral address was delivered by Rev. Mr. Hamilton, and the Episcopal burial service was read. They were forwarded east at midnight.

Advices from Tucson, Arizona, report that the Apaches have captured a station on the Jornanda del Mierto, near Fort Craig, New Mexico, and killed thirteen persons. The Navajoes had broken out, and the troops at Fort Wingate, were sent against them. Another dispatch states that the Indians burned Fort Wingate and stole all the stock.

Extensive arrangements are being made in Louisville, Ky., for the reception of ex-President Grant, who is expected there during the latter part of next month. The Courier-Journal says that, "politics aside, there is not a man, woman or child in Kentucky who would not be glad to see him, and extend to him an old-fashioned, cordial greeting." Cincinnati and Columbus (O.) have sent invitations to General Grant to visit those cities also.

Considerable complaint is made at Portsmouth, N. H., relative to the unreliability of signal bureau reports as displayed there. Out of a total of thirteen signals ordered up since July 1st, only one-fourth have been justified. Many of the warnings reached the station too late to be of any advantage either to marine or inshore interests. The Portland (Me.) people make similar complaint, and say the storm signals had been flying twenty-four hours yesterday, although the weather during that time was exceedingly fine. They add that the signals are displayed there too late and continued on fine weather, frightening passengers from taking steamers, and demoralizing shipping interests generally.

A Thin-Skinned Spaniard.

PARIS, Oct. 30.—Count de Miranda, Secretary of the Spanish Embassy in Paris, left the room when Senor Zorilla was about to speak at the Venezuelan dinner, saying it was impossible for a servant of the Spanish Crown to remain while a resolute adversary of that Crown spoke in the name of the Spanish nation. Senor Zorilla, responding to the toast, said that his peculiar position did not allow him to deliver a political speech on French soil, but he simply claimed, as an honor to himself and to Spain, to have caused a scheme whereby 35,000 slaves were emancipated.

More Floods in Spain.

MADRID, Oct. 30.—There have been heavy rains throughout the country. At Malaga a waterspout uprooted trees and injured many persons. At Vera, in Algeria, the river overflowed and flooded the mines, throwing 1,500 men out of work. Twenty-one persons were drowned, thirty houses and 500,000 pesetos worth of ore were carried away. At Cuevac several lives were lost and one house was destroyed. Marauders are taking advantage of these events to depredate on property. The Saragoso and Barcelona railway is submerged for a distance of sixteen kilometers.

Charged With Infanticide.

Lenoir Topic.

Frances Hood, Lucretia Wood, Mary Dula and Stanhope Hood, all negroes, were arrested in Freedman last Monday night, the former charged with murdering her infant and the three last named as being accessories to the crime. These negroes have been down the country, engaged in picking cotton and have just returned. The crime was committed in Mecklenburg, where the prisoners will be sent for trial. It appears that there are still others implicated in the murder. The infant was unearthed from where it had been buried by the heartless mother.

A "Drummer" in Trouble.

Wilmington Star, 1st.

We learn that a certain "drummer" for a clothing store in this city attempted to frighten an unappreciative customer into purchasing a suit of clothing at the establishment of his employer, yesterday afternoon, by playing the role of a policeman, placing his hand on his collar and telling him to "consider himself under arrest." The countryman subsequently complained to Mayor Fishblate, who issued a warrant for the "drummer" and made him pay a fine of $20 for this assumption of authority, as well as for other unlawful means he employed to force the man to buy the goods which he didn't want.

THE SPANISH STORM.

THE PRINCIPAL RAILROAD LINES INTERRUPTED.

The Ebro far above the Ordinary Level --Houses, Mills and Bridges Carried Away.

MADRID, Nov. 1.—Since yesterday the principal railroad lines of Arragon, Catalonia and Navarre have been interrupted by the gales and floods, chiefly in the valley of the Ebro, where the water has risen several meters above the ordinary level and destroyed the line between Saragossa and Catalonia for fifteen miles and flooded the valley of Tortosa, carried away houses, mills, bridges, and caused them to be damaged to the extent of several millions pesitas. In the upper Aragon, the Husea river the alcondre invaded several villages, cut the railway embankment and carried away the iron bridge at Sarimena. Telegraphic communication is very irregular to-day, but the governments of Malaga and Almeira reports the gale extended over the whole of Andalusia, and caused a very disastrous flood in the rural districts and in the town of Malaga. The river Almanzora flooded its valley and destroyed forty houses, and sixty persons were drowned.

THE SOLDIERS' HOMES.

Have the Inmates any Rights the Managers are Bound to Respect?

Washington Post.

Five old soldiers were discharged from the Soldiers' Home this week on the surgeon's certificate that they were fit for duty. They immediately applied for enlistment, but were rejected on examination by the board of recruiting surgeons. They had been discharged from the service for disability, and the board pronounced them not recovered from it, and consequently still ineligible. A written application was then made to Adjutant-General Townsend at the War department, but they were still rejected as being physically unfit to serve. In their emergency they applied to the board of commissioners of the Soldiers' Home to be readmitted, but were refused. They are now without means of support and depending upon charity. They have not received traveling expenses to carry them further than the city, and are without home, money or friends. It is understood that an investigation into this case is to be made at the War department at once, and proceedings will be taken by the friends of the unfortunate men to secure justice to them through the courts, if necessary. One of the men has since found light employment for his board. The names of the others are William Cohrs, James P. Clemens, John Benson and Lewis Brennon. They all paid their twelve and one-half cents per month while in the service for the support of the Home.

STATE NEWS.

[Correspondence under this head is furnished by regular contributors to the News.]

FRANKLINTON, Nov. 1.—Henry Hawkins and Taylor McKnight fought over a drum. Hawkins broke a stick in three pieces over McKnight's head. Major C. W. Conway fined them one dollar each and cost.

A week or two since while the Rev. Mr. Ragland, of Oxford, and a colored brother preacher were together, they went from Rock Spring Church to Jerry Allen's, colored, where Jerry's wife put the birds of a feather to bed together. They spoke for the same quarters at the ensuing association.

W.

A Girl's Encounter with a Deer.

The Philadelphia Press publishes the following dispatch from Shohola, Pa., and vouches for its correctness:

Four or five miles back of this place, in an old log cabin, lives Thomas Hendershot. He has a pretty daughter about eighteen years of age. Clara Hendershot can row a boat, shoot a gun or trap a bear as well as any man in the country. A few days ago she started across the lake known as the Great Walker pond to visit a friend. She used a light boat belonging to her father, and carried, as was her custom, a small rifle slung across her shoulder by a leathern strap. When nearly in the center of the lake she discovered an object in the water, a short distance off, and upon approaching nearer, she found that it was a large five-pronged buck, which had been driven in by dogs.

She immediately unslung her gun, and, after long aim, fired. The ball passed through the deer's neck, making a painful wound. The animal, enraged, struck at the boat with its front foot, completely shattering one side of the fragile bark, which sunk, leaving Miss Hendershot in the water with the infuriated buck. She was plucky and could swim well, and as the deer came toward her she caught it by the horns and plunged her hunting-knife into its neck, killing it instantly. She then called for help, and as none arrived she swam to the shore, about a quarter of a mile, and hurried home. She put on dry clothes, and procuring another boat rowed out to where the dead buck was floating and towed it to shore. When dressed the animal weighed nearly two hundred and eighty pounds. This is the seventh deer Miss Hendershot has killed.

Florida Superstition.

A colored female of DuPont is in great tribulation. It seems that she had been freely permitting the visits of a dusky husband of one of her neighbors, at which his wife grew intensely jealous. It seems further that some of friends told the injured wife that if she would procure three inches of her rival's sack, put salt in it and burn it, said rival would die and never trouble her more. She made long and repeated trials to either beg or purchase that coveted three inches of sack, but without avail. Finally, however, since she could neither beg nor buy, she concluded to steal, and thus she obtained her heart's desire. The piece was duly salted and burned, and the deserted wife now sits down quietly and happily to await her rival's demise. In the meantime the latter has heard of these proceedings, and feeling sure that her death is but a question of very little time has lapsed into a brooding melancholy. She has invoked the strong arm of the law in her behalf, and has had her would-be slayer arrested for stealing, but whether she can prove the charge, or whether, if she does, it will bring any peace to her troubled spirit, the DuFont Okefenokean and Waycross Observer saith not.

A Family Swept Away.

Lenoir Topic.

Under date of October 19th, a gentleman in Boone writes us as follows: Mr. Isaac Winkler, his wife and son, being all of the household, died between twelve o'clock last night and twelve to-day. Milk-poison is supposed to be the cause. Mr. Winkler and wife were, each, about seventy years old; their son about twenty-two. They lived about four miles north of Boone, Watauga county, on a place belonging to T. J. Coffey & Bro., and known as the Sugar-loaf. They will all be buried to-morrow together.

CHUNKY GAL'S SPLIT.

A North Carolina Mountain on a Bender.

Atlanta Constitution.

CONYERS, October 29.—It is not an uncommon thing for chestnut wagons to come here all the way from western North Carolina, and finding one in town this morning, I entered into conversation with the driver, and learned to my gratification that he was from the vicinity of Chunky Gal mountain.

"What about the landslide over your way?" I inquired as I sampled a few chestnuts.

"It's wuss'n that, stranger," said the chestnut man, "it's a reg'lar airth-quick."

"Tell me about it."

"Well, said the North Carolinian, eyeing me suspiciously, "thar ain't much to tell, only Chunky Gal split herself from top to bottom about three weeks ago, an' played h—ll ginrully."

"What is the extent of the damage?" I asked.

"Not much yit," was the reply, "but then our folks don't like sich goin's on—they don't know what to expect, an' all the old wimmin is skeered to death. You see, stranger, this devilment has geen goin' on for some time. We've heered all sorts of queer rumblings in the mountain for a couple of months, but nobody allowed as anything serious was goin' to happen till about three weeks ago."

"Well, what occurred then?"

"Why, sir, we heerd a noise like thunder, and the very airth shuck under our feet. It was a tryin' time, I tell you. Airly next mornin' some of us started to the mountain to see what old Chunky Gal was up to, an' when we got to the western slope we saw at once that it was an airthquick."

"What did you see?"

"Everything was torn up, sir—big rocks had rolled down from the side of the mountain, where they had been ever since the flood, I reckon, an' in their track they had smashed trees an' everything. But the strangest part of all was a split we diskivered in the mountain—we followed it a mile or more, but was afeared to go any further."

"How wide was the split, as you call it?"

"Oh, it was not so very wide—that was not the thing—it was the sinking of that part of the mountain on the eastern side of the split—that bothered us a heap. In some places that half of the mountain had sunk fully ten feet lower than the other half. I tell you, stranger, it looked powerful skeery round thar, an' we didn't stay long."

"You say no damage was done—no lives or property lost?"

"Nobody hurt that I know of but Jim Head's still-house, that was right in the track of a big rock, and it got mashed into splinters—that's all the damage I heerd of, but if Chunky Gal don't quit sich pranks I'm goin' to move to Georgy."

I asked a few more questions, but finding that nothing more was to be elicited, I bought some chestnuts and the man from Chunky Gal moved on.

LATE STATE NOTES.

Franklin Reporter.

Last Friday morning a little son of Mr. Rickman Dills, living on Cartoogechaye, had his left ear cut off by a cane mill.

Captain W. L. Tate, of Waynesville, had the misfortune, while in Clay, of having the bone of one of his legs fractured, caused by his horse running away. Captain Tate passed through Franklin Tuesday, and we are glad to learn that he is improving.

Louisburg Times.

The crowd on Monday was not very large, as no important cases were on the docket to draw the people here. Horse swapping on Cedar Hill was somewhat dull.

W. H. Ransom, a colored barkeeper of Franklinton, dropped dead in that place on Monday of this week. His sudden death was caused from heart disease.

J. H. Williamson, of this place, has made two very beautiful crosses, placed in very neat frames. He intends exhibiting them at the Industrial Fair of the colored people, which takes place in Raleigh on the 17th November.

Mecklenburg at Macon.

Charlotte Observer, 1st.

A telegram was received here last night from Mr. Wood, at Macon, Ga., to the effect that Mecklenburg ran in one of the races there yesterday (probably a mile dash) and came in second. Buckshot, whom he beat in Atlanta last week, won the race; time, 1.48. Mecklenburg is now too fat, and it is believed that as soon as he runs off some of his surplus flesh he will beat any time that he has yet made.

School Map.

Fayetteville Gazette.

Collier Cobb, a son of Rev. N. B. Cobb, of Fayetteville, received at the State Fair a gold medal, and $3 for preparing the best school map of North Carolina. His map is on the scale of eight miles to the inch. He gives the date of organization of every county, high school and college in the State, the location of the rivers and marl beds, and a great deal of useful information never before presented in such form. Such a map ought to form a part of the school furniture of every public and private school room in North Carolina.

Fine Carrot.

Wilson Advance.

We were shown last Wednesday by one of our enterprising farmers, a carrot, which measured eighteen inches in circumference and weighed four pounds and two ounces. This is the largest that we ever remember having seen, but we learn that it is only a specimen of the yield from a very fine crop planted this year as an experiment. Our farmers would do well to try this crop for it can be raised with comparatively little expense and as food for cattle in winter, and especially for milk cows, there is nothing better.

Committed for Arson.

Charlotte Observer, 1st.

George Lanier, colored, has been sent to jail on the charge of burning Mr. Lun Potts's barn in Deweese township. The commitment was made out by Justice Mayes and orders the prisoner to be held till the next term of the Inferior Court. Magistrates should recollect that the crime of arson cannot be tried by this court, but must lay over to the Superior Court. The crime with which Lanier is charged was committed some time ago.

The unprecedented demand for Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup has had the effect of bringing out numerous similar remedies; but the people are not so easily induced to make a trial of the new article, when they value the old and reliable one—Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.

THE OLD DOMINION.

PRESIDENT HAYES GIVES HIS VIEWS ON THE STATE DEBT.

He Would be Surprised if Republicans should ally themselves with the Readjusters.

Norfolk Landmark, 1st.

RICHMOND, Va., Oct. 31.—The Intelligencer this evening publishes what it says is not a stolen interview, but the outspoken and candid statement of the views of President Hayes on the Virginia debt question, given to its editor, Colonel Joseph R. Popham, during his recent visit to Washington. The President said: I have nothing to conceal or withhold from any one, and prefer that my position should be known to all. I do not assume to command or control the votes of the Republicans of Virginia, nor do I seek in a despotic way to influence the action of Federal officers, yet I would be much surprised if the Republicans should ally themselves with the Readjusters in your State. They should not countenance or encourage or touch any proposition or project whatever that contains even the germ of repudiation. They must not sacrifice the great principle involved in the payment of the honest debts of Virginia, even though to do so would result in some trenchant advantage over their adversaries. This is not a question of to-day, but of all time. Virginia is making the greatest mistake of her life; forcible readjustment in principle, nothing less than repudiation.

Don't your people know that there is not a respectable man in all the North who will be likely to settle in your State unless you act the part of honest men and pay what you owe? Here in Washington, where I am living, so near to your State that I almost feel I am within its territory, my interest has been much aroused in your troubles. Indeed, in a speech which I made at Detroit a few weeks ago, I had Virginia and Tennessee almost solely in my mind when I dwelt on the enormous wrong and injury of repudiation in all its forms, and that speech I sent to General Wickham, with this portion of it—pointing to the part marked—that he and all others interested might understand my feelings in the controversy in Virginia. My views on the general subject are those which I know are entertained by; General Grant, Senator Blaine, Secretary Sherman, and all other leading Republicans in every part of the North, East and West, and surely Southern Republicans will not place themselves in opposition to such leaders.

The Intelligencer states that the President said a great deal more on the subject, and finally inquired if Federal officials, naming the district attorneys and collectors of customs at Richmond, Norfolk and Harrisonburg, collectors of internal revenue at Richmond, Petersburg and other points, and postmasters of this and other important cities and towns in the State, were not supporting to the Debt-payers. He seemed gratified to hear that they were, and then said he hoped the colored people of Virginia would not be misled by the appeals of demagogues, and induced to cast their votes against the debt-payers, the party of honesty and right in this contest.

Spring Garden Peanuts.

Wilmington Review.

This fertile region of Rocky Point, in Pender county, is famous for large yields and a fine quantity of peanuts. That excellent farmer, Mr. W. D. Chadwick, who is farming upon the fine lands of the celebrated farmer of that locality, Joel Hines, Esq., has sent us a specimen of his peanut crop of this year. The bunch or hill which he has sent us, and now hanging up in our office, contains, by actual count, four hundred and fifteen (415) well matured and good size peanuts, without any pops, or faulty peas. He informs us that this hill will measure over one quart and that this is the average yield to the hill of the peanut crop generally this year at Spring Garden. There are no better farming lands in the State than those of Spring Garden and Rocky Point. The farmers of Pender county are now busy at work in gathering their fine crops of peanuts, corn, cow-peas, rice, cotton and sweet potatoes. We learn that some of them will, in addition to these crops, enter this year upon the culture of tobacco.

Indian Relics.

Franklin Reporter.

Mr. Wayne Jacobs showed us last Saturday a collection of very fine Indian relics. There were three images of birds, hewn out of stone, weighing five pounds ten ounces, three pounds thirteen ounces, and three pounds four ounces. One represented an owl, the beak of one resembles that of an eagle, while the other is undoubtedly made to represent some water fowl. Among other specimens was a jaw-bone of immense proportions. It was pronounced by those who ought to know, to be the jaw-bone of an Indian in the prime of life. The teeth were in a complete state of preservation. These relics were washed up by the late flood just above the junction of the Sugar Fork and Tennessee rivers, about a mile and a half from Franklin, on the site of an old Indian town.

Appalling Salubrity.

Boston Sunday Times.

A young gentleman and his blushing bride, who were recently married in Philadelphia, called the next week at an apartment house, and were shown the flat that was to let by the loquacious person who officiates as janitor. This estimable woman, who would appear to be a good motherly soul, went on to illustrate how very healthy the house happened to be. "There was Mrs.——, on the first floor; she came here a bride and went away with three children, as pretty little things as ever I saw, mem, and there was Mrs. ——, the second, who had a little son born to her here, mem, and fourteen months after a little daughter. And, mem, Mrs. ——, the third floor, she was a bride, too, mem, and it was twins, mem, within a year. If you please, mem, I am the mother of four of the darlingest—" "Thanks," said the bridegroom, from whom I gleaned this anecdote; "after all, I think it would be better to go a little further up town." And he led the bride—"blushing again"—into the open air and out of the healthy neighborhood.

Attempted Highway Robbery.

Wadesboro Herald.

Last Wednesday evening as Mr. W. G. Huntley was on his way home from this place in a two-horse wagon, he was accosted by three negroes, who demanded his money. One of the negroes took hold of the bridles of the horses, and the others stood one on the right, and the other on the left of the wagon. Mr. H. informed them that he had left all of his money in the bank at Wadesboro except a few dollars. They told him to give them what he had. He put his hand in his pocket as though he was going to respond to their demand. Instead of the money, he drew out a revolver, and placing it to the breast of one of the scoundrels, fired. The negro fired at Mr H. and fell, when the one on the opposite side struck at Mr. Huntley, but failed to hit him, as the horses had became frightened and were running. One of the negroes continued to fire, but fortunately the balls did no damage, save passing through Mr. Huntley's clothing. It is thought and hoped that the negro that was shot is fatally wounded.

AN INCENDIARY AT WORK.

Thirty-five Barns of Tobacco Destroyed at One Time.

Oxford Free Lance.

Tally Ho Township, and indeed a large portion of the county, has been for some days greatly excited over the fiendish act of a negro rascal who, on Sunday morning last, laid in ashes the large packing barn belonging to Mr. R. T. Elam, containing his whole crop of tobacco, thirty-five barns, and estimated at 20,000 pounds.

The negro, named Ruffin Evans was arrested on the Monday following, tried before W. H. Smith, Esq., and the evidence pointing to him directly as the perpetrator of the arson, he was lodged in the county jail on Tuesday, in default of $1,000 bail.

The testimony showed that the week before he had been discharged from employment by Mr. Elam, and he was heard to make threats as to the burning of the barn and doing other damage to Mr. Elam. There appears not to be the slightest doubt that the barn was fired purposely and that Evans, who is a man of doubtful character, did the deed.

The fire was first discovered by some parties at Gooch's Mill, and an examination showed the door had been broken open, the lock being found some little distance from the barn. Evans denied having burned the barn but says he knows who did it and implicates some other negroes. As yet, however, no further arrests have been made.

The lowest estimate of the loss sustained is put down at $5,000, and Mr. Elam, who is one of our most respected citizens, has the heartfelt sympathy of the entire county.

Cupid's Cullings.

Tarboro Southerner.

When Cupid, the arrant archer, goes about shooting his amorous arrows into human hearts, or meanders around ripening young fruit, why old Hymen, with his big apron, just stands under the tree to catch all that falls. When the frost blights the cabbage leaf, and wilts the potato vine, driving the June bug, and his uncles, and his cousins and his aunts into their holes; when woolen bed covering takes a rise in the market and comforters are sought for cold nights, 'tis then the harvest is ripe and the laborers are many. Our weekly installment runs thus:

Married, on 9th inst., by W. D. Allen, Esq., Mr. Augustus Perry and Miss Bettie Ball, all of Franklin.

Augustus Perry,
Drink and be merry,
Bid avaunt to dull care and all;
Your lovely Bettie,
So sweet and pretty,
Will give you many a little Ball.

At the Court House, in Wilson, on Thursday, October 23d by T. C. Davis, Esq., Mr. Kinchen J. D. Meacer to Miss Susan J. Thomas, daughter of the late Curtis Thomas.

We've nothing to say—so long as there's fair play,
In the swapping of names and estates,
But how can a man deal a fair hand,
At such wholesale alphabetical rates!

At the residence of George W. Young, on the 15th inst., William T., son of W. H. Nash, and Miss Jennie E., daughter of John H. Davis, Esq., of Halifax county, Rev. Mr. Huffham officiating.

W. H. Nash,
You've done nothing rash.
The way to fortune and happiness to pave is,
Love your young wife,
Far dearer than life,
She's worthy of it—is Jennie E. Davis.

Married, at the residence of Mrs. S. Bray, in E. City, October 9th, by Rev. A. Wiles, Mr. J. B. Fearing, Sr., of E. City, and Miss Mollie Commander, of Pasquotank county.

Miss Mollie will be ever Fearing
To lose her own Philander,
While he is proud that he has got
So charming a Commander.

Mr. James G. Bennett and Miss Nancy Wood, of Nash, were married on the 7th instant.

Fair and frisky gay and good,
Was skipping little Nancy Wood,—
Now all th' boys ev'ry minute,
Are so sorry she has been it.

Married in Lenoir county Tuesday, Oct. 7th, by Rev. D. A. Long, Miss Sallie E. Waters to Mr. James Titus Askew, all of Lenoir.

Miss Sallie E and Mr. James Titus,
Before you, of life, the fight is,
Joy to Mr. Askew and Miss Waters,
Bright sons and fair, loving daughters,
May the merry marriage bell,
A life of love and peace foretell.
May these all be Cupid's matches,
Unmarr'd by cuffs or angry scratches.

The N. C. Railroad Debt.

The commissioners appointed to settle that part of the State debt created to build the North Carolina Railroad have issued the following:

RALEIGH, N. C., Oct. 30, 1879.

SIR:—The Commissioners appointed under the Act of 14th of March, 1879, to adjust and renew that portion of the State incurred to aid in the construction of the North Carolina Railroad, having organized and entered upon the subject, found themselves confronted at the outset with a serious difficulty. By the decree rendered in the case of Swasey vs. the North Carolina Railroad Company, June 17th, 1874, it was ordered and directed that, unless the State should, on or before the first day of April, 1875, make provision for the payment of the interest due upon the bonds, her stock in the said corporation should be sold for its payment; the amount of the stock to be sold being then, and still, left undermined, to be settled by a future decree.

No such provision was made, and it is now at the option of any one of the bondholders represented in the said action, to move at any time for a sale of the stock.

You will readily understand, therefore, that we cannot, with a due regard to the interests of the State, arrange for the exchange of a portion of the bonds, leaving her stock at the mercy of any creditors who may not choose to accept the arrangement. And we regret to inform you, that, with this danger impending, we do not feel at liberty to enter upon negotiations for the exchange of the bonds. If the creditors who control that action desire the exchange, they can remove this obstacle; and we will be glad to receive any proposition from them looking to that end and which will enable us to proceed with the duties of the commission.

We, therefore, respectfully suggest that a meeting of the bondholders be held at some convenient time and place for the purpose of considering the best method of removing the difficulty, and promoting the speedy adjustment of the debt.

GEORGE DAVIS,
MONTFORD MCGEHEE, } Commissioners
D. W. BAIN. }

A SURPRISED RADICAL.

THE DEMOCRATIC STRENGTH STILL REMAINING IN OHIO.

Murat Halstead Interviewed---His Astonishment at the Result of the Ohio Election.

New York Tribune, 30th.

Murat Halstead, the editor of the Cincinnati Commercial, was in this city yesterday, and was requested by the Tribune reporter to give his views as to the recent Republican victory in Ohio and the situation in New York. Mr. Halstead said:

As to Ohio, I do not after all feel a sense of exultation over the defeat of the Democracy this fall. The most remarkable thing about that election seems to me to be that when the Democracy were so manifestly in the wrong on the National, State and municipal issues; when the assassination of Dixon and the acquittal of the Chisolm murderers had intensified the public feeling about the methods that insure the solidity of the South; when the Democratic candidate for Governor was the most flagrant representative of inflation ideas, and was persistent in asserting them to the last in the face of accomplished resumption; with pouring into the country every week, with our great harvests, with the very weather coming, even in the early days of October, hot and dry to perfect the corn by hardening it in the ear and making all the crops good; when every furnace in Ohio was lighted up and the smoke of the chimneys greeted you at every manufacturing center; with the Democratic candidate on record as declaring that resumption would bring ruin, and that it would take an army of 100,000 men to keep the people down in case they undertook to force resumption; when owing to the jealousies arising in the fight, they had thrown away their generalissimo, John G. Thompson, who had managed their campaigns many years with singular energy and adroitness; when the Democratic management of the benevolent institutions of the State had been offensive; when their meddling in municipal affairs in Cincinnati, Cleveland and the central cities of the State was all unpopular and vicious, and notoriously so;

THAT AFTER ALL

Ewing should have received more than 319,000 votes—more votes than any man ever got who ran for a State office in Ohio, with the single exception of the votes that Foster got this time, when his plurality was only 17,000 in a poll of over 650,000 votes—seems to show the formidableness of the Democratic party as a political organization, and the great force of discipline in the party, as no other incident in the history of the country has done. Under all these discouragements, with the wind and the tide and the boom of business and everything possible against them, that they should have displayed such strength shows what there is to be contended with if the country is not to be given up to them. Looking at the figures, it is plain that the German Republican vote of the State was necessary to save it.

What do you think of the situation in New York.

Now, touching the situation in New York, I regret to see those who have been known as composing the Liberal element take ground against Mr. Cornell, against whom I am not aware that there is any personal objection, and against whose political methods the readiest criticism is that they are perhaps too much like those of the Democracy—that he believes in discipline and the compactness and force of organization. It is questionable whether the Republicans will not find it to their advantage to be more particular about their organization. I concede the importance of the assertion of the right of discrimination—of scratching the ticket—but that which I regret in the position taken by Mr. Curtis, and, as I see, by Mr. Horace White and others, is that I fear they are wasting in a comparatively trivial matter a wholesome influence that may be much needed in a greater affair next year. I should have been glad to have seen the influence of Mr. Curtis unimpaired for useful work in the canvass for the approaching nominee of the Republicans for the Presidency. I fear that he will not be as strong as he might have been.

Good Evidence.

When such men as the Rev. Dr. Rankin, Rev. Dr. Harvey, Prof Green, Dr. Bartine, Col John K. McChesney, E. W. Neff, and a host of others equally trustworthy, certify over their own signatures to the marvelous efficacy of Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Cure, in the diseases for which it is recommended, it is time to dismiss doubts on the subject.

Why Will You

Allow a cold to advance in your system and thus encourage more serious maladies, such as Pneumonia, Hemorrhages and Lung troubles when an immediate relief can be so readily attained. Boschee's German Syrup has gained the largest sale in the world for the cure of Cough, Colds and the severest Lung Diseases. It is Dr. Boschee's famous German prescription, and is prepared with the greatest care, and no fear need be entertained in administering it to the youngest child, as per directions. The sale of this medicine is unprecedented. Since first introduced there has been a constant increasing demand and without a single report of a failure to do its work in any case. Ask your Druggist as to the truth of these remarks. Large Size 75 cents. Try it and be convinced.

This fashionable disorder is supposed to be an affection of the mucous membrane of the nose. They say that Henry's Carbolic salve will cure it if used freely and persistently. Give it a trial. Beware of counterfeits.

DAILY NEWS

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 2, 1879.

GEO. C. JORDAN, Editor and Prop'r.

NEW YORK advices indicate that Waldo Hutchins, Democrat, will be elected in the XIIth New York District. This is Clarkson N. Potter's district.

OUR telegraphic dispatches announce the death of Zachariah Chandler, of Michigan, at the Grand Pacific Hotel at Chicago. By this event the Stalwarts have lost their most powerful man—a loss which is not easily repaired. Mr. Chandler was a violent partisan, but he was evidently honest in his convictions.

THE Atlanta Dispatch publishes a cut of the Colored University of Atlanta, and states that this college is a living refutation of the report that Georgia is not educating all of her people. The University receives an annual appropriation from the State, and is attended by colored youth from all parts of Georgia. They have an able corps of teachers.

CALIFORNIA is fast finding out that it is easy work to adopt a constitution taxing capital, but impossible to keep capital where it is to be taxed. Savings-bank deposits have dropped $3,700,000 in six months, the bank of California has reduced its capital from $5,000,000 to $3,000,000, the Grangers' bank from $4,000,000 to $1,000,000, and real estate is duller than for sixteen years.

"THE best laid schemes of mice and men gang aft agley." The Republicans were laughing at the idea that the chances of a Democratic majority in the House were exceedingly slim, owing to the fact that California would send a solid Congressional delegation. Now it turns out that the Democratic candidate in the IIId District has been declared officially elected by a majority of thirty-six. This makes the Democratic majority clear of all contingencies except death.

IT is said that an investigation of the New York elevated railroads revealed the fact that the stock has been "watered" to the extent of six or seven million dollars. During the investigation some interesting statistics were given. The fifteen miles of track now in operation cost twelve millions of dollars, and when the construction is thoroughly completed, it is thought that the expense will be fully a million dollars to each mile of track. A car costs $3,400; an engine over $5,000.

WE commend the following, from the Durham Tobacco Plant, to the prayerful consideration of our citizens. It seems hard to think that Raleigh missed this chance through the apathy of her people:

There was a transfer of real estate in the town of Durham Thursday last that shows what the town of Durham is doing. M. A. Angier sold one-fifth of an acre of land on Main, Clay and Mangum streets for $10,000, the rate of $50,000 an acre. On this lot were two old buildings and one very small new one. The buildings, all told, are not worth over $1,000, placing the land valuation at $9,000, or $45,000 per acre. The beauty of the transaction is that every dollar was paid down.

WHAT connection the duties of a fireman and an ability to play billiards have with each other is not explained by the New York World when it states that one of the rules of the fire department of that city requires members to pay $16 each toward the purchase of billiard tables for their use during off hours. If this thing keeps on we may expect to hear of their being required to pay $5 each for cards with an additional $1.50 for a copy of Minister Bob Schenck's "Poker Manual." Or, perhaps, to invest so much monthly in Havana lottery tickets. The New York fire department is rightly considered the most splendidly equipped and efficiently manned in the world; but add a few more Tammany exactions like the above, and the quality of its service must deteriorate.

IT was loudly spoken in the closing days of the Maine election that the Republicans were openly offering bribes for votes. This cry, of course, attaches to every campaign and is raised by both parties. But in this case the assertions were so broad and apparently well sustained that the Boston Globe sent a force of trained men and detectives into that State to investigate the rumors of bribery, intimidation and corruption with which the air was full both before and after election day. The results of that investigation, says the Globe, have more than confirmed the worst that was charged and suspected. A long account fills the columns of the Globe, and discloses a political condition hardly less disgraceful than that which has been charged to have existed in Mississippi and Louisiana. There have not indeed been any political murders in Maine, but every other form of political corruption and villainy which has been charged against the South is found to have been actually practiced in Maine during the last campaign.

THE EXPERIMENT STATION EXPOSES A HUMBUG.

Under the head of SUNDRY HUMBUGS we find the following in the last number of the American Agriculturist:

"Among the many swindles that are intended especially for the "benefit" of farmers is "THE VITATIVE COMPOUND," which came to us some time ago, with the most remarkable claims. It is sold by one Bingham, of Pennsylvania, and is claimed to be patented by one Waugaman. We shall presently show this name is not the only gammon that there is about it. It is sold in boxes, holding about two ounces, for $1, and cheap at that when we consider what it is claimd it will do. We are told that the stuff "IS PURELY CHEMICAL IN ITS CHARACTER and effects, contains, in a condensed form, those ingredients so generally deficient in the soil [we should hope they might be!] and yet so essential to the immediate and certain germination of the seed, and the vigorous and rapid growth of the plant." All sorts of claims, "more vigorous and rapid growth." etc., etc., are made, but the claim that struck us most reads: "It is applied directly to the seed, and not scattered broadcast, as many fertilizers are." It is said that Liebig once predicted the time when the manure for a whole field could be carried in the vest pocket, but here we don't manure the field at all. We go to head quarters, and MANURE THE SEED just as the boy Franklin proposed that his father say grace over the whole barrel of pork. Then, so very "vitative" is the stuff, that we learn that it will not only protect the seed, but "the shoot, against wire-worms, and grubs." So powerful the stuff that we wonder any box could hold it. We, with proper care, laid the box aside for further examination, and, impossible as it may seem, it was actually forgotten. But this compound was so "vitative" that it turned up in North Carolina, and our friend, Professor A. R. LeDoux, the State Chemist, made it show its "purely chemical character" in the "twinkling of a gally-pot." This "Vitative Compound," according to Professor LeDoux, contains NOT ONE FERTILIZING INGREDIENT, but it is a miserable mixture of Sugar of Lead and White Vitrol!—Acetate of Lead and Sulphate of Zinc!—and the wonderful Wa-gammon, who is said to have patented it, didn't know enough about chemical compounds to be aware that these two salts would decompose one another, so that, practically, the seed would be wetted with a little Acetate of Zinc! The stuff cost about 4 cents, and sold for a dollar, which might be called a "living profit." THE NORTH CAOLINA EXPERIMENT STATION has done a very good thing in exposing this humbug, and we thank it for the analysis of the "Vitative Compound."

POLITICAL NOTES.

The New York Independents get a big mail every day from sympathizers all over New York, and the papers oftenest quoted are the Springfield Republican, Harper's Weekly and the New York Nation.

Mr. Horace White has written from London a letter to the independent (scratching) Republicans of New York city, commending their movement to defeat Cornell and Soule, and subscribing $100 for their cause.

The Columbus (Ohio) Democrat has been revived and reorganized with a capital of $50,000, under John G. Thompson as president. It is understood by the Cincinnati papers that the editorial management will be offered to John Cockerill formerly of the Enquirer and Washington Post and now of the Baltimore Gazette.

Candidate Hayes laid down the sound principle that no Federal offier should be removed "as long as his personal character remained untarnished and the performance of his duties was satisfactory." President Hayes had no business to remove Cornell for any other reason, and if this was his reason he has no business to recommend his election to another and more important office.—Springfield Republican.

THE POLITICAL SITUATION.

Views of Senator Carpenter on the National Contest.

Baltimore Sun, 31st.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—Senator Carpenter, in the course of an interview today, stated that the only reason why he had not taken an active part in this campaign was owing to the feeble state of his health. He says: "If New York and Pennsylvania should go strongly Republican it will then be pretty certain that the Republican party, with any good candidate, will sweep the field in 1880, and the effort will undoubtedly be to open the prize to the widest competition among the candidates in the convention, and the choice will be determined by personal preferences or by chance. Conkling, Sherman and Blaine will in that event have about equal chances, provided General Grant should refuse to be a candidate, as against him no one would have any chance. If General Grant is not nominated, or refuses to accept, the Republican candidate may be either Conkling, Sherman, Blaine or Chandler, and either one would be elected. From present appearances it makes but little difference who the Democratic nominee is. Under the two-thirds rule in force in the Democratic convention no man can be nominated unless he is in full accord with Southern sentiment and policy. I believe it makes but little difference who the Democratic nominee is, he will not be elected.

"The nomination of Judge Settle for Vice-President would be very popular. He is a man of ability and integrity, would carry all the Republican strength in the South, and I think would carry North Carolina, Florida, and perhaps some of the other Southern States. He would carry a full vote in the Northern States, because after the matter is plainly understood the Republicans of the North would understand that the nomination of a Southerner on our ticket would free us from the charge of being a sectional party. The Democrats will, of course, run a Northern ticket, so to speak, and the bulk of their vote lies in the South. These facts will enable them to claim that they are not sectional, you see, which if our ticket is composed of Northern men exclusively, and the bulk of our support of Northern votes, the charge will rest against us that we are sectionalists: besides this, Settle has been tried and trusted; he is as good a Republican as any man in the North to-day."

Grant and the Republican Programme.

Washington Dispatch to the New York Sun.

Congress will meet this year on the 1st day of December, with the Republicans probably flushed by their temporary triumphs and the Democrats possibly instructed by the lessons of defeat. The session will be devoted mainly to President making on both sides. There will be little useful legislation unless the line of precedents should be departed from. The Republicans will seek to force the sectional issue forward as their best resource for the next campaign. They live upon that issue and will continue to push it. The basis of this policy is to nominate Grant as the "strong man" to put down an imaginary thing invented by leaders to deceive the country and to aid their own ambitious designs. Personally, Grant is to talk conservatively and to welcome the Confederate Brigadiers with open hands. There was more significance than the thoughtless knew, or supposed, in the prearranged visit of Confederate soldiers, distinctively presented as such, at San Francisco. Mark how cordially Grant received them; and mark again how the Atlanta Constitution has recently intimated what would be done South in a certain contingency.

Retire the Greenbacks.

New York Herald.

Now is the golden opportunity of retiring the Greenbacks and getting rid of them altogether. In a few months all the bank reserves should be made to consist of gold coin, and the greenbacks having served the purpose for which they were created, should disappear and be as if they had never existed.

The Philosophy of Colorado Hate.

Vicksburg Herald.

The people of Colorado want Indian blood, and nothing else than all of it will satisfy them. Wrong a man, and then your hate for him grows faster than sin on a soft conscience.

The Exodus Movement.

Wilson Advance.

The colored people of Wilson county are satisfied. Their liberties are granted and their children enjoy educational facilities in common with the white race. The solid, hard-working, meritorious negroes of Wilson county will not consent to go into a country of which they know nothing. They will not consent to give up a good living for suffering and hardship in a cold and barren land. In other words, they have refused to raise the money to send delegates to Kansas, and have determined to continue living in North Carolina. A wise resolution, and one which will repay them an hundred fold.

Then the Fun Would be Lost.

Atlanta Constitution.

The editor of the Washington Republican blocks out his editorials with the hatchet once employed by the late father of his country. This is what comes of allowing free access to the relics of the past. The venerable editor and the venerable chop-axe should both be in a museum.

Too Hasty by Half.

Cincinnati Enquirer.

The Republican press may be overworking the obituary business in the case of Mr. Thurman. The Supreme Court revived the Pacific railroad boom before the Senator had time to fairly compose himself as a corpse.

Each of Warner's Safe Remedies—the Safe Kidney and Liver Cure, Safe Pills, Safe Nervine, and Safe Bitters, is asserted to be the best of its class, and the intention is to keep it so. If any medical expert can add an ingredient which will improve any one of them, he will be paid a high price for the improvement.

SALT RHEUM.

Life a burden from the sufferings caused by this terrible disease.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER—Gentlemen: Please accept my most grateful thanks for the great, very great, comfort I have received from the use of your CUTICURA.

For the past eight or nine years I have been troubled with that dreadful disease, Salt Rheum.

For months I would be helpless,—my very life a burden to me.

I have used everything in the shape of medicine, both external and internal, but with no effect.

My hands were in a terrible condition, the backs of them being all raw, and I thought I would try CUTICURA.

I tried it, and lo! it was as if a miracle had been performed, for I will take my oath that in three applications my hands were as smooth as a new-born babe's.

I presume there are hundreds, if not thousands, who know of my case, among whom there may be some one similarly afflicted, and if so I would earnestly advise him to give CUTICURA a trial.

Yours, very thankfully,
A.D.BAKER, Ticket Agent C. S. R. R.

Tetter or Salt Rheum

On the hands cured. A greatful letter.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER—Gentlemen:—Having been troubled for many years with the Tetter or Salt Rheum, I spent many a hard-earned dollar I was given a trial of your CUTICURA, and, thank God, my hands are well. I never had anything do me good like that.

You may put this in the paper and welceme, and may it do some other poor sufferer the same good it has done me! I am well known here, having lived here almost fifteen years and kept boarders for a living, and sometimes my heart was sore, thinking I would have to give up altogether with my sore hands, and having a small family to take care of; but oh! thank God, my hands are well, so I again return thanks.

Yours respectfully,
ELIZABETH BUKLEY.

DR. C. McLANE'S

CELEBRATED

FOR THE CURE OF

Hepatitis, or Liver Complaint,

DYSPEPSIA AND SICK HEADACHE

Symptoms of a Diseased Liver.

PAIN in the right side, under the edge of the ribs, increases on pressure; sometimes the pain is in the left side; the patient is rarely able to lie on the left side; sometimes the pain is felt under the shoulder blade, and it frequently extends to the top of the shoulder, and is sometimes mistaken for rheumatism in the arm. The stomach is affected with loss of appetite and sickness; the bowels in general are costive, sometimes alternative with lax; the head is troubled with pain, accompanied with a dull, heavy sensation in the back part. There is generally a considerable loss of memory, accompanied with a painful sensation of having left undone something which ought to have been done. A slight, dry cough is sometimes an attendant. The patient complains of weariness and debility; he is easily startled, his feet are cold or burning, and he complains of a prickly sensation of the skin; his spirits are low; and although he is satisfied that exercise would be beneficial to him, yet he can scarcely summon up fortitude enough to try it. In fact, he distrusts every remedy. Several of the above symptoms attend the disease, but cases have occurred where few of them existed, yet examination of the body, after death, has shown the LIVER to have been extensively deranged.

AGUE AND FEVER

DR. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS, IN CASES OF AGUE AND FEVER, when taken with Quinine, are productive of the most happy results. No better cathartic can be used, preparatory to, or after taking Quinine. We would advise all who are afflicted with this disease to give them a FAIR TRIAL.

For all bilious derangements, and as a simple purgative, they are unequaled.

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS.

The genuine are never sugar coated.

Every box has a red wax seal on the lid, with the impression DR. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS.

The genuine McLANE'S LIVER PILLS bear the signatures of C. McLANE and FLEMING BROS. on the wrappers.

Insist upon having the genuine DR. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS, prepared by Fleming Bros. of Pittsburgh, Pa., the market being full of imitations of the name McLane, spelled differently but same pronunciation.

PREVENTIVE OF

Malarial Diseases

Opinion of Eminent Dr. H. R. Walton, Annapolis Md.

Golden's Liebig's Liquid Extract of Beef is a most excellent preparation. It is par excellence. Superior to Cod Liver Oil or anything I have ever used in wasted or impaired constitutions, and extremely beneficial as a preventive of Malarial diseases.

GOSSIP FOR THE LADIES.

Fringed Gentian.

Along this quiet wood-road, winding slow,
When free October ranged its sylvan ways,
And, vaulting up the terraced steep below
Chased laughing sunbeams through the golden days,
In matchless beauty, tender and serene,
The gentian reigned, an undisputed queen.

One sudden break, half down the lengthening shade,
Revealed a dark-rimmed circle, still and lone—
Her presence filled that sun-illumined glade,
She made the enchanted solitude her own;
The heavens above their watch eternal kept,
And, steeped in light, the embracing woodland slept.

Pale knots of grasses fringed the open space,
Her lifted cups passed lightly through and through—
Each chalice moulded in divinest grace,
Each brimmed with pure, intense and perfect blue;
Alone and spotless in her virgin fame,
Her life upheld the year's immortal claim.

Now wail low winds about the forest caves,
Now life grows cold 'neath cold and dreary skies,
And rustling ankle-deep in fallen leaves,
The lone, deserted wood-path blanching lies;
Yet, pinched and wan, of youthful charm bereft,
The last forsaken gentian still is left.

A wondrous fairness hath the perfect flower,
Serenely calm beneath a sapphire sky;
But holier far, in Autumn's wildest hour,
The constant love that cannot wholly die;
To me her radiant youth new faith did bring,
Yet now her pallor seems a higher thing.

Thrilled by her gaze, I deem no fancy wild,
Where spirit grace outlasts the ruder clay;
For me, the Autumn's last and loveliest child
Takes not even now her haunting charm away,
But when cold storms have stripped the snow-clad hill,
In finer spirit-presence lingers still!

—Elaine Goodale.

When the old gentleman comes home and finds his daughters have got his slippers and the easy chair and the evening paper ready for him, he realizes that it is the season for a fall opening of his pocket-book.

"I never look upon the tobacconist's sign of an Indian girl without a feeling of gratitude for the inestimable boon she once conferred upon our family," said the man in the summer ulster. His name was Smith.

They stood all alone, and 'twas late,
And deep shadows were cast by the gate,
When her very bad brother, the scamp,
Climbed the post and lighted the lamp;
And the meeting adjourned without date.

Arabella (on her toes in a chair, clutching convulsively at her skirts)—"O, Bridget! a mouse! a mouse! Come and catch it, quick!" Bridget—"Sure, mum, there's no hurry. If this one gets away, I can catch plenty more for yer, mum."—Andrews Bazaar.

A young lady graduate entered a large book-store, and asked for the "Infantile Innocents in the Recesses of the Forest." The clerk had formerly been connected with the postoffice department, was used to hard ones, and at once handed out "Babes in the Woods."

"Two souls with but a single thought,
Two hearts which beat as one,"
Old folks abed—the lamp turned out—
Oh crackey! wasn't it fun?

—Whitehall Times.

The London Spectator thinks that women care more for nature and men more for art. A cynical bachelor might say that perhaps that is the reason why men and women care so much for each other.

The Philadelphia Chronicle says: Mary Anderson's step-father says she has no time to think of lovers. When a girl earns enough money to buy all the ice cream she wants it makes her dreadfully high minded.

The melancholy days have come, the saddest of the year.
When it's too warm for hot spiced rum, too cold for lager beer;
Deep in the hollows of the wood the withered leaves lie dead.
And the girls go forth and gather up about three pecks per head.

When the country editor wishes to get up a big sale for his paper he sends through an office presided over by a woman a postal card to the correspondent, on which is written: "Send me a full account of the scandal."

A good deal of good natured gush has been written about the man in the moon. There can't be any woman in fair Luna's realm or the gentleman in question wouldn't be smiling upon the daughters of earth so blandly night after night.

Do you mind when I scaled the back-fence
To see if you left me a note?
Old Tray gave chase across the lawn,
And I fell over the goat.
Do you think of the night I took you home,
And I asked for a modest kiss?
You said no; I must go,
That your dad would be mad,
Do you remember this?

"I wish it would rain, if it's going to," said a Vallejo wife to her husband. "And why, dear?" he affectionately replied. "Oh," said she, gazing vacantly at a pin on the floor, "I don't see any use wearing monogram stockings this kind of weather."—Vallejo Chronicle

Miss Rye has been carrying on her good work for about ten years. She collects street waifs—girls—from the highways of London. These are taken to Canada and are placed in respectable families, and in most cases have obtained comfortable homes and led virtuous lives.

—A fair head meekly bowed
A shy glance coming after.
Voices not over loud,
And a low, sweet laughter:
So is the story told
Up in the cottage old
Under the smoky rafter.

A fair maid flushing red
With an unknown feeling,
But shamed to bow her head
For all her lover's kneeling;
So is the story told
Down, 'mid the white and gold,
Under the painted ceiling.

Get out Doors!

The close confinement of all factory work, gives the operators pallid faces, poor appetite, languid, miserable feelings, poor blood, inactive liver, kidneys and urinary troubles, and all the physicians and medicine in the world cannot help them unless they get out of doors or use Hop Bitters, the purest and best remedy, especially for such cases, having abundance of health, sunshine and rosy cheecks in them. They cost but a trifle. See another column.

Caution Not Necessary.

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder produces better bread, biscuits, cakes, etc., than any other. Its purity admits of any quantity being used with perfect safety, and without detriment to the articles prepared. Households where true economy is studied will use Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder.

IF THESE WARNINGS ARE UNHEEDED, SERIOUS DISEASES WILL SOON BE DEVELOPED.

TUTT'S PILLS are especially adapted to such cases, one dose effects such a change of feeling as to astonish the sufferer.

CONSTIPATION.

Only with regularity of the bowels can perfect health be enjoyed. If the constipation is of recent date, a single dose of TUTT'S PILLS will suffice, but if it has become habitual, one pill should be taken every night, gradually lessening the frequency of the dose until a regular daily movement is obtained, which will soon follow.

Dr. I. Guy Lewis, Fulton, Ark., says:
"After a practice of 25 years, I pronounce TUTT'S PILLS the best anti-bilious medicine ever made."

Rev. F. R. Osgood, New York, says:
"I have had Dyspepsia, Weak Stomach and Nervousness. I never had any medicine to do me so much good as TUTT'S PILLS. They are as good as represented."

TRUSTEE'S SALE OF VALUABLE REAL ESTATE,

MILLS, &c.

By virtue of a deed of trust executed to me by M. McGhee and wife, of Person county, N. C., and registered in the Register's books of said county, book W, page 270, &c., I will sell, at public auction, on the 3d day of November next, upon the premises, the following property:

1st. A large and valuable Mill, 40x50 feet and four stories high. It has two Corn Mills and two Wheat Mills, driven by one turbine and two overshot wheels. Its capacity for storing wheat is from six to seven thousand bushels. There is a Saw Mill, Cotton Gin, Miller's House and Workshop attached.

2d. A new Store House, 26x40 fee , and Lot connected therewith, upon which Lot there is a Lumber House and Blacksmith shop.

3d. The Land known as the Woodburn Tract consisting of some 1,200 acres. The Land is divided into convenient tracts all well watered, and having a due proportion of wood. To each tract but one there is attached a body of excellent low grounds, and upon all but one there are buildings, some of them very valuable. A survey of each tract will be exhibited on day of sale, and the lands shown together with the surveys, to any person making application to the undersigned at any time before the day of sale.

4th. A valuable Library.

5th. The crops of corn, wheat, tobacco, fodder and oats. Also, Teams and Plantation Implements.

TERMS—The Real Estate upon the terms of one-third cash, one-third in one year and one-third in two years, with interest on the deferred payments from the day of sale until paid, and the other property and effects for cash.

DAILY NEWS

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 2, 1879.

Entered at the Postoffice at Raleigh, N. C., as second-class matter.

Weather Report.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.

For the South Atlantic States north to east winds, a slight fall in temperature; rising barometer and partly cloudy weather with local rains near the coast.

Index to New Advertisements.

LEWIS & STRONG—Notice.
ALFRED WILLIAMS—Local notice.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

——Pleasant.

——Go pay your taxes.

——Revenue receipts $746.66.

——How about that clover patch?

——Perseverance—there's nothing like it.

——"Remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy."

——This is a good day to consider things prayerfully.

——Where's Jack Frost? Have you gone anywhere, Jack?

——That cow may be a belle of this town, but then—bells are scarce.

——Mr. Fairchild's green house has about been completed in Nash Square.

Mr. Joseph Williams has a letter held for insuficent direction in the post office.

——And now the festive partridge is in requisition, and the supply seems to be ample.

——Mass at St. John's church (R. C.) this morning at 10:30; the Rev. Father White celebrant.

——About twenty-seven thousand dollars of old bonds exchanged at the State Treasury yesterday.

——The regular monthly meeting of Rescue Company will be held to-morrow night, at 7 o'clock, sharp.

——Mr. Macon and his oyster saloon is the most popular place and man in town just now. The bivalves go off at a rapid rate.

——The Raleigh Jockey Club propose having some fine races at the Fair Grounds in this city on the 19th and 20th instant.

——Some of our pastors are punctual about giving in their notices every Saturday. Others are irregular in the extreme. Do better.

——L. Hart, Witz & Co., Baltimore and Burchman Jarboe, Baltimore had drummers,licenses issued them yesterday by the State Treasurer.

——Mr. Lincke's new sign, "Athletic Hall," last night looked from Fayetteville street like a new edition of the "Pleiades" in the eastern sky.

——Service in the Institution of the Deaf and Dumb and Blind by the Pastor of the Second Presbyterian church at 11 A. M.; none in the afternoon.

——One of our most popular deputy sheriffs has got his pockets loaded with warrants against parties for failing to list their taxes. Look out.

——Hardin & Brother, of Philadelphia; Herman, Booker & Company, of New York, and Corprew & Hunter, of Norfolk, have all taken out drummers' licenses.

——Here is a little note in regard to the chicken trade: The firm of W. C. & A. B. Stronach sold for one firm in Greensboro, in the month of October, 1,971 chickens.

——Marshall Williams skipped the gutter yesterday. One of his bondsmen delivered him up to the proper authorities and then left. The officer became engaged in conversation with another party and Marsh left, too.

——Only one case before His Honor Mayor Manly yesterday. A woman was before him upon the complaint of a man who said he had fifty cents stolen from him. Two minutes were allowed them to vacate the room, which they did with neatness and dispatch. "Don't like you anyway."

——A letter addressed "G. F. Kennedy, Stumpquarters, N. C.," is held at the postoffice. Reason: No such office in the State. Thomas H. Parker lives in Bertie county, but he doesn't seem to reside in any particular locality of that county, if his correspondent is to be relied on. There is a letter in the office for you, Thomas, which you can receive by a handsome majority when you find a postoffice.

——Captain R. T. Fulghum, late of the Observer of this city, goes to Greensboro to-morrow to take charge of the Patriot, now the oldest Democratic paper in North Carolina. Captain Fulghum has been connected with the press of the State nearly ten years, and is too well known to our people to require any commendation at our hands. In his new home we wish him that success which he so richly deserves.

——The NEWS publishes no Church Directory this morning for the reason that correct statements may not be given. Requests have been made from time to time that pastors of churches send in on Saturday mornings notices of services on Sundays, but the requests are oftentimes unheeded. Strangers stopping over Sabbath in the city would in many cases like to attend; but when no authentic information is furnished they are at loss where to go or what to do.

——The Right Reverend Mr. Barham, colored, was before Justice Barbee yesterday charged with assault and battery. It seems that the Reverend gentleman wanted to shake money out of a colored sister who had charge of the Sunday school contributions. The sister wouldn't shake worth a cent, and brother Barham would have had a grand shake himself if the sister had not withdrawn the complaint and let him go. The Justice thinks he seriously needs a good "shaking up," and in that respect he is after the reporter's own mind.

——The Kinston (Lenoir Co.) Journal in giving an account of the lawyers who attend their Superior Court thus speaks of our town Judge Strong: He is par excellence the best lawyer attending the Kinston Bar, and with a reputation of having no superior in the State. He is an earnest, persistent, hard worker, with a mind so well stored with legal lore so that he seizes even the faintest clue in a case and works it up to victory, if victory is possible. Judge Strong has been for many years the leading jurist in this circuit, and his service on the Bench and in his law school has rendered him a formidable antagonist in any legal tribunal.

Married.

On Wednesday last, in Oxford, N. B. Cannady and Miss Young, all of Oxford.

Died.

In Franklin, Friday evening, Mrs. Polly Williams, aged ninety-two years.

At Elizabeth City, October 28th, Mrs. Maria Louisa Hines, wife of the late S. Edward Hines, and daughter of the late Joseph Root.

Moore's Complete History of N. C.

This valuable book will be ready for sale in about two months. Besides being the only complete history of the State ever published, it will be an exceedingly handsome specimen of fine printing. A great deal of care is being given to the work both by author and publishers, that it may be all that North Carolinians desire in a history of the State.

Convocation of Raleigh.

The Convocation of Raleigh will meet in the church of the Good Shepherd on Wednesday, November 5th, and continue in session Thursday and Friday. There will be service at 11 A. M. and 7:30 P. M. each day, with addresses from the visiting clergy on Missionary Work, on the Increase of the Ministry; on Lay Co-operation, and on Christian Education. The seats in the church are all free, and the public are cordially invited.

Catholic Fair.

Sometime during the latter part of this month the Catholics of this city will have a Fair at Metropolitan Hall. We are informed that the occasion will be one fraught with pleasure. Among the varied attractive features of the festival will be an elegant gold pen, offered on a vote, to the most prominent merchant of the city. There will be quite a number of novel and interesting things introduced during the continuance of the Fair, which will amply repay a visit, and which will be more specifically mentioned as the time draws nigh.

The Fire Alarms.

Now that winter approacheth, every one should become familiar with the fire alarms.

One tap of the bell means that the fire is in division number one—all north of Hargett and east of Fayetteville.

Two taps mean the second division—south of Hargett and east of Fayetteville.

Three taps mean division number three—south of Hargett and west of Fayetteville.

Four taps mean fourth division—north of Hargett and west of Fayetteville.

Five taps mean that the fire is on one of the blocks bordering on Fayetteville street.

Almost Young Again.

"My mother was afflicted a long time with Neuralgia and a dull, heavy inactive condition of the whole system; headache, nervous prostration, and was almost helpless. No physicians or medicines did her any good. Three months ago she began to use Hop Bitters, with such good effect that she seems and feels young again, although over seventy years old. We think there is no other medicine fit to use in the family,"—A lady, in Providence, R. I.

The Secret Key to Health.

The Science of Life, or Self-Preservation, 300 pages. Price, only $1. Contains fifty valuable prescriptions, either one of which is worth more than ten times the price of the book. Illustrated sample sent on receipt of six cents for postage. Address, Dr. W. H. Parker, four Bulfinch Street, Boston, Mass. Sept. 28—3 m.

Just opened at Heller Brothers' shoe store, ladies' white and blue kid sandals and gondolas, something handsome. Call and see them.

Neuralgine.

This is not a KING CURE-ALL. But is only good for Neuralgia and Headache. For these troubles it is the only specific known. Sold by all the leading druggists. tf.

Call on Jones, Green & Powell for all kinds of grain and forage, wood coal and lumber. *

Popular With the Masses.

Our prices are popular with the masses because they are as uniform and as low, in many instances even lower, on the same class of goods, as those of any boasting "One price C. O. D. store" south of New York. A trial will confirm what we say and save you money.

R. B. ANDREWS & Co.,
Clothiers and Hatters. *

The Patapsco Baking Powder manufactured by Smith, Hanway & Co., of Baltimore, is the only Baking Powder patented in the United States and Canada. The purity and healthfulness of this powder is indorsed by the most eminent chemists and physicians of this country. *

Delight all Lovers of Sweet Scents.

The unique perfumes made by Dr. Price delight, by their lasting character and refreshing fragrance, all lovers of sweet scents. Dr. Price's Pet Rose, Evening Violet, Meadow Flowers, Lily of the Valley and his other odors, are the most exquisite that can be imagined.

*Yeargan, Petty & Co. sell the Mile End Spool Cotton, and their salesmen say when a lady once uses it she never asks for any other kind afterwards.

*One of the Bloods of Boston recently went to Chicago and got into a dispute with a policeman regarding the number of glasses of beer he had taken. As a blood purifier there is nothing like Rosadalis, the great Southern Remedy. Soothes the hot blood with a magic touch.

W. C. & A. B. Stronach

have accepted the agency for the justly celebrated "Enterprise" brand of roasted coffee, retail price twenty-five cents per pound, and a liberal margin to dealers. *

A Card.

All who are suffering from the errors and indiscretions of youth, nervous weakness, early decay, loss of manhood, etc., I will send a receipt that will cure you, free of charge. This great remedy was discovered by a missionary in South America. Send a self-addressed envelope to the Rev. JOSEPH T. INMAN, Station D, Bible House, New York City.

Handmade Shoes, "such as the new style of French and English Toes. A new lot of Opera Cloaks. The third stock of the celebrated Pearl Shirts, from $1.00 to $1.25 and $1.35. My upstairs Clothing Department cannot be excelled. JOS. P. GULLY.

VEGETINE.

Behold Me a Well Woman.

CANCER.

MONTGOMERY, ALA., June 26, 1878.

H. R. STEVENS, BOSTON.

DEAR SIR:—I have for years been a sufferer from a dreadful CANCER in my side which caused me untold agony, and as I am a widow with a family depencent upon my exertions for a support, my pain of body was only equalled by my pain of mind, at seeing my children want for bread. I was presented by a kind friend in Cincinnati with half a dozen bottles of Vegetine, and although one bottle is still untouched, behold me a well woman, completely restored in body and mind, and able to perform my accustomed duties. Long may you live! and may the history of my wonderful cure lead other like sufferers to purchase your valuable medicine, if it is with the last cent they possess.

Yours gratefully,
MRS. FULLER SUTT.

I write this to certify that I have known Mrs. Fuller Sutt from childhood, and have seen the hours of agony, that her patient womanhood has been called upon to endure. She has suffered untold agonies and now sits beside me in perfect health with her child upon her knee. The prayers of this grateful woman will ever be yours, my noble sir, and we add our testimony to the thousands that favor the greatest of all modern discoveries, "Vegetine."

Yours respectfully,
MRS. CHELLET SUMMER.

SUFFERED 25 YEARS.

Piles, Rheumatism.

GOODMAN, MISS., May 6, 1878.

H. R. STEVENS, BOSTON:

I have been suffering for 25 years with the Piles and found but little relief from any medicine that I have taken for many years past. Last winter I suffered considerably worse than ever before, also in connection with Rheumatism I was confined to my bed for several weeks. Having procured a bottle of Vegetine I took it with good effect. I continued the use, and after taking four or five bottles, find myself comparatively cured. I can cheerfully recommend it for the benefits that I have received from it.

Yours respectfully,
J. W. TAGGART.

LUNG DISEASE.

SELMA, ALA., May 12, 1872.

H. R. STEVENS, BOSTON:

I take great pleasure in recommending your Vegetine. I have been suffering for a long time with the Lung Disease; trying every kind of medicine that I could get, but none seemed to do me any good, until I tried your great Vegetine remedy. I had used it only a short time before I could discover a very great change in my health for the better. I don't consider that your medicine has its equal, for the diseases which you propose to cure, especially the disease that I have been afflicted with

VEST POCKET CURE 25 DYSPEPSIA 25 CLERGY & DOCTORS TESTE

Rev. Dr. Mangum, Prof. Univ. of N. C.

I concur with Bishop Doggett in his estimate of the Vest Pocket Cure.

Rev. Drs. Jeter, Broaddus, Dickinson, (Bap.

It is indorsed by the direct personal testimony of men of national fame and strictness of speech. It is not too much to say that no medicine ever had such support in its favor as a specific. The word of any one of the eminent divines who underwrite this antidote to dyspepsia has deserved weight. Their united witness joined with the experimental use and approval of the preparation by well-known physicians, remove all doubt. It is beyond question, a wonderful therapeutical agent.—Editors Religious Herald, Va.

Chaplain Randolph Macon College, Va.

Many cases of Dyspepsia within my knowledge have been cured by it. Cramps, Colics Headaches and all sorts of pains from indigestion yield promptly to it. The cures of this sort are innumerable.

Rev. R. L. Dabney, LL. D.,
Col. Va.

It is highly esteemed here by the regular Medical Faculty and the people It is excellent for indigestion and flatulent colic sedative, soporific, tonic, slightly aperient without nausea.

Rev. B. F. Woodward P. E., Va. Conf.

About twelve years I suffered from Dyspepsia. Falling in with this remedy, I gave it a fair trial. After its use I could eat anything with impunity. I am sure I am indebted to this medicine for what of health and physical comfort I have had for the last sixteen years. I have known many since to be relieved by its use.

Rev. Robert W. Watts, A. M., Va.

I have used the mixture in my family for years and have taken it for a Dyspepsia Colic, which threatened my life, and was cured, eating any diet without hurt. I have recommended it to other sufferers with happiest results. It is the best tonic and corrective I ever knew. For prostration from Dyspepsia or Liver Disease it is invaluable.

J. D. Eggleston, M. D., Va.

It is a highly valuable remedy, and is more extensively used than any single article in the whole list of medicines, so far as I observed in my practice, for all the complaints in families from indigestion. I use it and recommend it.

Editor Richmond Christian Advocate.

This remedy is of tried virtue. I have seen Dyspepsia cured completely by it. It seems to be an antidote to our National Disease." The ingredients are not kept by the apothecaries, and have been difficult to get.
